“ Wow. It is true I can't believe your really gone. I wish the hurt would stop but it hasn't. I remember the days when I would miss family birthday parties and other events due to the many surgeries and constant pain I was in. I am grateful they finally fixed me thirteen months ago because I got my life back and i was finally able to attend the family functions which meant I got to spend more time with you and I am so grateful for that it hurts and I miss you. I can make you three promises pops. Tammy and I will be there for your tudi. I will visit Bella more as you and I know I was Bella's second favorite behind you...lol. Most important I promise to take great care of your daughter Tammy. You made me laugh all the time and my family especially jimmy and my dad will miss running into you doing scratch offs...lol. It's so surreal that I wish it wasn't true. We will meet again someday. I love you pops may you Rest In Peace

“ Damn Pop, Not only where you the only grandfather I've ever known but you were the best grandfather I could of wished for. You came to every football game from pop warner to college, you came to my wedding a day after you had a stroke, and sat at the hospital all night long while Glady was in labor. You truely were the best this family had to offer. I'm gonna miss you more then words can say. But what saddens me the most is Jayden won't grow up with his poppy. But don't worry, he'll hear all about how great of a man you were. Even tho your gone Pop, you will NEVER be forgotten. I Love You and will see you again some day.

“ It is with a heavy heart that we say good-bye to Uncle Victor. His loving and caring way will be missed by anyone who ever had the privilege of meeting him. His warm and kind demeanor, attentiveness, and sense of humor touched us all. He was a good man - the best - who left us entirely too soon, and left this world a little less colorful. Love you always Uncle Vic.

“ I've been trying to write something for awhile, but I can't even fathom the right words to say about you poppy. All I know right now is that it still doesn't feel real, I know that I love you and I will forever, I know that I miss you and I've missed you for awhile now and wish that we saw each other more like when I was a kid, you were my favorite grandparent growing up, you always knew how to make me laugh and smile, always asked me who did my hair and where were your earrings. I wish I could have been at the hospital, I wish I could have seen you one last time, I wish I could tell you, how much you mean to me and how just because I didn't see you everyday, doesn't mean I never thought about you or missed you or didn't love you. R.I.P poppy I love you “ Poppy...I can't believe that you're no longer with us, I'll truly miss joking around with you and our small talks about my sister and if she's still single, haha. You are truly one of a kind man and I feel such sorrow and regret that not only myself but Mia didn't get to spend more time with you...I'll miss your random "Bernadette"(punches the air) We love you so much Pop, until we meet again...

“ I'm still in such belief that this is real, idk what I'm going to do without you poppy:(, I'm gonna miss you calling me at 7:50 every morning said "happy birthday Tessa" then I will come outside then we will drive me to school. We would see the crossing guard and try to guess why she was late to work. You are the only grandfather I ever knew, and I don't care that I don't know any of the other ones, you are MY poppy and will always be MY poppy, I love you more than words can describe, I would do absolutely anything to get you back. I remember whenever we were at Walmart when I was little and I would ask mommy for a toy and she'd say "NO TESS" and then you'd say "common lets go for a walk" and we would sneak me a toy and mommy would yell "are you serious Vic, this is why she's so spoiled" or you would always bring me home a new stuffed animal and mommy would yell and say "Vic stop with then stuffed animals" but you wouldn't. I wish you didn't leave us so soon, I'm completely lost without you. I wish you would be able to watch me walk across the stage for graduation, see my last prom, get married, but god took you away from me, from friends and family who love you so much. Wait till I meet you again we are fist fighting you weren't supposed to leave us so soon poppy, gone but NEVER forgotten. I love and miss you so so much.

“ My heart melts for you all. He loved his family as well as his extended family with all his heart. He had welcomed us all with open arms as family. I know you all meant the world to him as he did to you all. He was an amazing man that touched so many hearts. He was always a happy go lucky kinda of man. Just went with the flow. Always smiling, laughing and joking. Ever time he saw me he would say how's it going Jugs. Lol made me laugh Every time. He will forever be in my heart. FLY HIGH MY FRIEND til we meet again. “ I keep getting flashbacks from Friday for your birthday...everyone was just laughing and having a good time...I'll never stop saying it, so lucky I had the opportunity to be in your life and to have had you in mine...from the moment I met you until the last day I saw you, you always had a special place in my heart...I'll miss you joking around with me and the funny way we always greeted each other. It hurts that Jayden didn't get much time with you or get to know you, but I'll make sure to talk to him about you as he grows up. RIP Poppy. Love you always, Glady

“ Poppy I can't believe that I'm even looking at an obituary with your picture on it. I love you pop, you've been the best grandfather to all of us. I can't tell you how much I'm going to miss you, and how much I'm going to miss hearing "love ya pooh". I'm sad my kids didn't get more time with you, they really loved you poppy, we all really loved you. Ill miss and love you forever pop, rest in peace

“ I still can't believe this is real Pop, I'm just sitting at work and it's been running through my head how I had the opportunity to see you one last time at your party but instead I went to eat with a friend. This will probably bug me the rest of my life that I didn't go to your party and I hope you forgive me. I love you Pop fly high and have a bottle of Jack waiting for me up there.

“ Grand pappy I don't know where to start because we shared so much I could sit here and go on forever. I know one thing for sure you took a big part of me with you because I'm already lost without and I know you wanted to stay but God needed another angel so he took you. But I know you will always watch over me and I'll talk to you everyday. You Werre a very special person to me and I never felt alone because I always knew you were in my life. You and I were like two peas in a pot. How do I get through this pop? Because I don't know if the pain will ever go away and I just would like one more hour with you to tell you how much you meant to me. I loved you pop and I can never ever forget you. Love you always your best friend and son hector.
