“ My favorite memory is a brand new one. Even in death Carl J Ballard continues to show us what a bright and beautiful soul he is. With thoughtful care he was thinking not of himself as he looked at the end of this life but of the love and the people he was leaving behind. When I heard of the beautiful Christmas gift he chose and left behind for his love I simply broke down. Tears of grief because his physical presence is no longer here with us and tears of Joy and Awe because in this great big world Judy and Carl had managed to find each other and got to build and experience a love that many of us never do. RIP Carl Ballard, I know you and Judy will find each other again. You leave behind a very very large hole that will never be filled...<3 <3

“ I have so many great memories of time spent with Carl. Sitting around, listening to you and your family tell stories of your younger years, laughing at stupid jokes or telling tales of the fish that got away! One night, long ago you helped make it possible that Larry and I reconnect again and start our life together. I can never thank you enough. You hold a special place in my heart Carl. Just wish we had more time. I love you and will miss you greatly!! See you on the other side my friend.

I am so sorry to hear about Carl's death. My love, thoughts and prayers are with you Judy and your family. I love you, my friend. Look for a Monarch who just keeps coming up to you and wanting to land on you or close by. I know you will feel Carl in many ways. I wish I lived closer. Know I am beside you.

During this time of sorrow I pray and hope you find comfort in knowing Carl is no longer sick. That the day will come (when our good lord is ready) for you and Carl to be together again. Until then, treasure the memories, and share them. Sorry I can't be with you physically but know I'm there in spirits. Sending my thoughts and prayers to you Judy and the family. RIP Carl.
