

Carmelita I. Jagolino

September 13, 1947 - February 24, 2023

On the morning of Feb 24, 2023, Carmelita I. Jagolino, 75, of Cohoes, New York, passed away at the comfort of her own home surrounded by her family.

Carmelita was born to Pritamdas Sehwhani and Eusebia in 1947 in Manila, Philippines. She was the eldest of their three children. She finished her bachelor's degree in commerce at PUP. In December 1969, she married Rodrigo Jagolino, and together they raised four children.

Carmelita is a very simple religious woman who loved her family dearly, a very humble and generous person. She loves spending time with her family going to different places with them. Carmelita is not a social person but because of her kindness she is loved by many. She made sure that all her children were taught of values, faith, and had shown them unconditional love that is overflowing. She shared her spare time outside of dialysis with CEO as a Foster Grand Parent.

Carmelita (or Mila as her nickname) is survived by her siblings Carmencita and Carlito, daughters Maria Romelita, Ma. Rosalinda, Anna Liza (Ramon) Biazon, Maria Imelda (Christopher) Lelo, grandchildren Noelle, Jamil Izaak, Clare, Jadyn, and many loving nieces, nephews and extended family.

A special thanks to the following for the full support they have provided to Carmelita especially during her last tough 6 months: BLD for their continuous prayer brigade, DCI for the care shown during her uncomfortable dialysis days, and friends who in one way or another has given her the courage and strength to hang on and helped to ease her pain. Lastly, the family would like to extend their sincerest gratitude towards Marra Funeral Home Inc for being very accommodating and understanding during this difficult time.

Carmelita's Celebration of Life will be held at Marra Funeral Home Inc on March 11, 2023, at 8:30-10:30am EST (The Mass will start at 8:45am). Carmelita's ashes will be brought by her family at the Holy Redeemer Cemetery.
