

Charles Hoffman

January 23, 1948 - October 30, 2020

Castleton On The Hudson, NY

Charles Hoffman, 72, died October 30, 2020. Born in Catskill New York, Charlie was the senior resident at Vanderheyden's Van Hoesen Group Home in Schodack. He grew up on a farm as the youngest of thirteen brothers and sisters, and was proud of the fact that his grandmother lived to be 99.

At the age of 6 Charlie was sent to live in a number of State run facilities until the Capital Region became his new hometown. Vanderheyden became his new sanctuary place when Charlie lived in an apartment in Cohoes. He has spent the past several years at Van Hoesen House in Schodack. Charlie has a massive stuffed animal collection that numbers around 200. He loved listening to music and singing along. He also enjoyed going to Denny's, traveling to Florida, Boston and Cape Cod, watching classic movies including horrors and thrillers especially Godzilla.

Charlie will be missed by all who knew him for his cheeriest of smiles, wonderful sense of humor, great conversation and for the way he could brighten up everyone's day.

Funeral services and calling hours will be private. Interment will be in Elmwood Cemetery Troy.
