

Donald Bell

August 6, 1956 - September 19, 2018

Brunswick, NY

Donald Bell, 62 years old, died peacefully at his home on September 19th, after only a brief illness.

Donald was, for 30 years, the king of his castle at his home in Brunswick, NY, which was operated by the Center for Disability Services. He was at all times enthusiastic and he immersed himself in his passions. Donald was a coffee connoisseur first and foremost. He also participated in regular walks throughout his friendly neighborhood because he loved being out in nature. He recently discovered his newest passion which was running and jumping at the Flight Trampoline Park in Albany, NY. Donald had dedicated and skilled staff people who assisted him in experiencing these many joys.

Donald was the son of the late Frank and Mary Bell of Troy. His siblings were Steven Bell of Oregon, the late Mark Bell of Troy, Susan Yerdon of Waterford, David Bell of Troy, and the late Margaret Cottrell of Troy. Donald also had several nieces and nephews.

Funeral Services are Tuesday at 12pm at the Marra Funeral Home, 246 Remsen St. Cohoes, NY 12047. Calling hours are 10am-12pm prior to services. Interment will be at St. Joseph's Cemetery Waterford.
