“ Today we will remembered Dorothy Williams as she was a loving mother and a loving grandmother who deeply love her children and grandchildren. Her husband Harold Williams who had stay by her side faithfully to her last days,in which Dorothy knew that. Dorothy Williams grandchildren will always be in their hearts and you will always be love as you always continue to be love and your kids and your grandchildren and family. You look down on them each day as a Beautiful Angel from the Heavens over all of them till meeting you again Dorothy. My condolences are with your family forever more. God bless you . Mason Williams Father Charles H Wilson.
