

Elizabeth Jane Miller

June 19, 1925 - February 13, 2025

Elizabeth “Betty” Jane Miller, 99, peacefully drifted into eternal rest on February 10, 2025. Born on June 19, 1925 in Cleveland Ohio she was the daughter of Forrest I. Ellenberger and Elizabeth A. Melick. She was the wife of the late Armour Conway Miller of Claverack, NY. She spent most of her life as a housewife and mother living in the Hudson, NY and Albany, NY areas.

Known to most everyone that knew her as “Betty Jane”, or simply “Jane”, she passionately loved dancing, music, the ballet, and Broadway shows. Her love of dancing earned her the nickname “Jukebox Jane” as a teenager and lasted her entire life as she joined several local performing senior dance groups in the area through her 70s and 80s.

She is survived by her daughter Sharon Latronica and son-in-law and Steven Latronica of Kentucky, son Nicholas Miller, daughter-in-law Linda Greaves-Miller, and grandson Logan Miller of Cohoes, NY. She was preceded in death by her son Kenyon (Barry) Barris.

Services and internment will be privately held at a future date.
