

Gail M. Hebert

October 20, 1952 - January 24, 2021

Waterford, NY

Gail M. Hebert, 68, died January 24, 2021 at Evergreen Commons after a long illness. Born in Troy she was daughter of the late Clarence E. and June B. Taylor Hebert. She graduated from Cohoes High School Class of 1972. Gail started her career at Cohoes Hospital in 1972 until they closed. She then moved on to work at Blue Cross Blue Shield in 1985 retiring in 2017. She was a longtime member of the Cohoes Women of the Moose where she held several offices including senior regent and held the highest degree as College of Regents until the organization left Cohoes.

She is survived by her siblings Earl (Estelle) Hebert of Troy, Gary (Mary) Hebert of Latham, Penny Reynolds of Cohoes, John (Jack) Hebert of Cohoes, Frank (Linda) Townsend of Ballston Spa and Pamela Hebert of Cohoes. She was pre-deceased by her brothers Thomas Hebert and Wayne Hebert. Also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services and calling hours are private at the convenience of the family due to concerns over COVID-19. Interment will be in Waterford Rural Cemetery.

The family would like everyone to know that they fully understand anyone who is reluctant to attend the private services during these difficult times we are all having dealing with the pandemic.
