“ To Joan's brothers & Father-

Joan was always a friend but it's been years and years since I've known her well. I know life had gotten hard for Joan and the challenges she'd been met with were cruel and unfair in the ways they stole her away from you and her beloved children. My hope for you all is that you find your way back to the memories of her when she was at her best, when she was closest to you and when you knew she was happiest. My hope for her kids is that you not hesitate in sharing those exact memories with them, because that's what they deserve. To know of their Mom and her life when things were going right, just how funny, beautiful and bright she could be.

Joanie Joan, I'm so sorry that things turned out like this for you. You deserved more from the world and those who knew you. You had one wicked sense of humor and the sound of your laugh was unmatched. I hope you are with your Mom, and that you know peace.

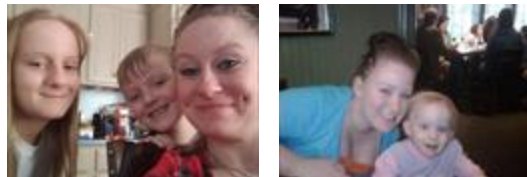

XoXo
