

Louise Mary Grossi

April 14, 1924 - December 15, 2017

Albany NY,

Louise Mary Grossi of Troy passed away peacefully at the Teresian House, Albany on December 15, 2017 after a short illness.

Louise was born in Troy on April 14, 1924 to Julia Belli Grossi and Benjamin Grossi. Louise grew up and was educated in Troy. She was a communicant of St Anthony's Parish until she moved to Cohoes. Louise graduated from St. Anthony's Catholic School and then Catholic Central High School. She went on to Troy Business College. Louise retired as a senior stenographer from the New York State Department of Labor in 1986 after 40 years of service.

Louise was an avid shopper and loved to knit. She was an active member of the Prayer Shawl Committee at St Henry's Parish until her illness.

Louise, affectionately known as Weesa, leaves behind her three treasured nieces and their husbands, Julienne and Timothy Wilkens of East Berne, Carole and Steven Lovelett of Averill Park and Patrice and Michael Bova of Cohoes and her grand- nephews Steven Lovelett of Troy and Robert Lovelett of Lebanon, NJ. Louise is also survived by many cousins.

Louise was predeceased by her loving sister and best friend, Mary Grossi Magnano.

Louise's family thanks the caregivers and staff at Teresian House for their care, support and friendship.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, December 19 at 10 a.m. from the Infant of Prague Chapel at Teresian House. Interment at St. Mary's Cemetery, Troy. Calling hours will begin at 9 a.m. prior to the funeral Mass in the Williamsburg Room at Teresian House.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the charity of your choice in Louise's name.
