

Lucille G. Schwab

September 9, 1913 - August 12, 2016

After a long life well lived, Lucille G Schwab passed away on August 12, 2016 at the Eddy Village Green in Cohoes. She was the daughter of Dr. George and Lucia deWolfe and graduated from Miss Porter's School and the Boston University. She moved to the Capital District where she worked for many years in both the State Senate and Assembly. She also spent much of her career in the legislative office of the New York State Independent Agents Association.

She is predeceased by her husband, Arthur L. Schwab and is mother of two sons, Michael Barrett (Ruth Walters) of Loudonville and Kent Barrett of Ravena. Lucille was the loving grandmother to two grandsons, Michael and Sam Barrett, both of New York City. Lucille's happiest times were spent at her family house at Lake George where she loved to boat, swim and watch the sunsets from her tree- topped deck.

Lucille's family would like to thank all the staff at the Eddy Village Green for their support and care during her final years. Memorial services will be private. Those wishing to remember Lucille can send a memorial contribution to the Lake George Association, P.O. Box 408, Lake George, 12845.
