Marc, affectionately called Marci by his family, graduated from Oakwood Christian School as class valedictorian in 2009. He obtained an associate degree in Criminal Justice from Hudson Valley Community College, making the dean's list. He served in the United States Air Force and worked in the computer technology and criminal justice fields. Marc also liked to travel. He visited family in Trinidad and Tobago, went on a mission trip to the Dominican Republic, and went to France. He visited Israel with family and was acquainted with friends there as well. He often traveled to Syracuse and Brooklyn, N.Y. to visit his grandmothers whom he loved very, very much.

He loved his family's West Indian cooking. If he was on his way to see his grandma in Brooklyn, she would often have roti and hot cocoa ready for him. He loved his auntie's cooking too- especially the curry chicken and macaroni pie. He enjoyed all the good West Indian foods like Peardrax drink and caramels.

He was deeply loved and is dearly missed, it does not seem real. In the words of his Auntie Donna "he was a very funny person." He was a nice and loveable person, easy-going, and very caring. He was helpful and if his family or friends had a need, he would always try to help them. Marc was a delight to be around. When he walked into a room he brought a light to the atmosphere that made people happy. May he forever rest in God's eternal peace.

“ Marc will be deeply missed. He was always the life of the party and could make anyone laugh. My heart goes out to his family and close friends. You're in my prayers.

Here are some pictures for others to enjoy during our summer of fun back in 2008.

“ Our condolences to Marc and Roslyn and all of the family. Only God knows the depth of your pain. We remember Marc or 'Markie' as he was affectionately called, as a lively soul. He loved to laugh and kept us laughing. While the world feels dimmer for the loss of his brightness, our hope is not extinguished. We pray that God will sustain you through this time and walk with you through this tunnel, secure in the knowledge that while weeping endures for a night, the joy will come in the morning. Until then, may God blanket you with His comfort.

*Love always,

“ My condolences to Mark and Roslyn at the passing of your precious son Marci. The sorrow that you are feeling can only be comforted by the Lord Himself so my prayer is that His comfort will strengthen you at time. He will keep and sustain you. He will uphold you with His righteous right hand. To the rest of the family - may the peace, comfort and rest of the Lord Jesus be yours as you grieve the loss of this dear family member. This Lord is with you all.

“ Marc, along with his longtime girlfriend, Kiersten, was a truly supportive friend to my daughter, helping her financially when he moved back to New York from a shared apartment in Florida and attending my husband's home going service when my daughter needed her friend's support.

I am thankful to hear of the grace that her relationship with Christ is giving his mother during this time. Prayers are for Kiersten, Marc's close friends, and all other family members. May all find peace in Jesus. 🙏
