

Michele Gaudreau

November 30, 1962 - January 10, 2026

Michele (Shelly) Gaudreau, age 63, of Cohoes, passed away after a courageous battle with breast cancer on January 10, 2026, surrounded by her loving family.

Born and raised in Cohoes, Shelly was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother. She dedicated over 30 years to her work in the billing department at St. Peter's/Albany Memorial Hospitals. She was a lifelong Yankees fan and had a love for music, often times you could find her enjoying the summer concerts at Powers Park and Canal Square. And we can't forget to mention her favorite soap opera General Hospital, that she watched faithfully every day!

Above all, Shelly was a devoted grandmother who adored spending time with her precious granddaughter, Ava. Shelly is survived by her husband, John Bullis, her son Justin (Amanda) Gaudreau, her cherished granddaughter Ava Gaudreau, her aunts Helen Mohr and Linda Allen, uncle Paul Mohr and several other family members. She is predeceased by her mother Margaret "Peggy" Gaudreau (Mohr) and her father Jean Gaudreau.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday at 6 pm at the Marra Funeral Home. Calling hours are from 4 to 6 prior to services.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the American Breast Cancer Society in Shelly's memory.

“ We were literally friends since birth. I have so many wonderful memories of our childhood. We got along like sisters and I only got in trouble if I made her late getting home from school causing her to miss any of General Hospital 😊. Rest in peace my friend. My wonderful memories will keep you alive in my heart forever. 😇

“ Shelly was like a second daughter to me while growing up. She always called my son Ron her brother. She and my daughter Terry were like sisters, always together. I was very close to her family and loved having Shelly at the house all while she grew up. I'm so sorry she was taken from us so young. I'm so very sorry for her family. She will be missed.
