

Patricia Ann Flavin

April 10, 1943 - January 15, 2020

Halfmoon, NY

Patricia Ann Flavin of Halfmoon passed away January 15, 2020 at Van Rensselaer Manor. The staff there are angels and she treasured each and every one of them. Pat was born in Cohoes NY, April 10, 1943 to Butch and Agnes Flavin. She will be joining them, her sister Mary Agnes and Aunt Franny now.

She is survived by her daughter Anne "Flavin" Chard, her grandson Scott (Kylie) Chard, and her great-grandchildren Brooke and Brayden. She was Aunt Pat to Marnie Carpenter (Michael), Julie Shea and countless others. Shea Carpenter was her great niece but more like her grandchild, they were so close.

Pat loved her life in her "country" house with Skip McDonald, Mary Keefe and Katie. She enjoyed yardwork, shopping for a bargain and knitting. So many people wear her scarves around their neck.

Pat was a good friend and neighbor to all on Reservoir Street and Briski Lane. A very special thanks to Sharon Flavin and her timely visit that allowed us precious time to make more memories with Pat. The Hospice Staff provided comfort, support and she loved her time with each and every one of them.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend both the calling hours at Marra Funeral Home on Monday January, 20 from 4-7pm and a celebration of Pat's life the following day from 5-8 pm at the American Legion Post 476 in Cohoes.

“ I've known Pat since high school & she always was a good friend . Pat, Mary Agnes & myself had many long conversations whether sitting in her home or In the back room of Joes tavern. Pat seemed to be the history keeper of Bunker Hill & could help you with any information you needed. We have lost a lot with Pats passing, especially the knowledge & company of a good friend.

“ We are sorry for your loss and will miss visiting with Pat when we come back to Cohoes. We have many of her scarves and she was a wealth of knowledge on my husband family history for our family tree on our ancestor's page.
