“ If only I were home and could lay my hands on a whole series of photos that represent over 40 years of friendship. I've always loved this one, though, when Kath and Rick and the Askews visited us in Aiken, SC. And NO, he is not wearing a huge dangly earring! But I love his smile just after pouring us all some very delicious red wine. And my guess is that he and Bob and Jim are sharing a little more right now. Rest in peace, dear friend.

My love is with you all, and may you have peaceful hearts, Kathy and Pam and Lisa. I will be there in spirit on September the 8th.
