

Robert "Bob" Emery Tryon

January 5, 1936 - May 28, 2016

Robert "Bob" Emery Tryon, 80, passed away on Saturday, May 28, 2016. Bob was a proud veteran of The United States Army, a chapter of his life which became a part of his identity. In his younger days Bob was an avid basketball and tennis player; he loved being active and outdoors. A sun worshipper to the end, he would be happy to even get just a few minutes of sunshine on his face. He was always known to have a great tan. Bob was an animal lover, especially to the cats he cherished throughout the years.

He is predeceased by his loving wife and best friend, Ann (Seduski) Tryon who was his true soulmate. They are now together for eternity. He is survived by his children, Kimberly "Kim" (Shawn) Dee and Thomas "Thommy" Tryon; his grandchild Steven Verkon; step-children, Paula Pascale and Marcia (Ron) Gordenstein; as well as six step-grandchildren and two step-great grandchildren.
