Ronald Harvey Ferguson was born on September 16th 1946, in New York City, to William Ferguson and Martha Ferguson. He resided in Lower Manhattan on Clinton street, where he received his Elementary through High School Education. He met and later married, Willie Mae Taylor. Together they had two children, Cassandra and Gracie. He was a truck driver as well as a NYC Taxi cab driver for many years. He relocated to upstate NY, where he resided with his Daughter Cassandra and remained there till his end. He was always surrounded by family even on his last day.

He was a very kind and caring Dad, Grandpa and Uncle. He can make you laugh for hours.

One of the greatest memories I would like to share is one of his favorite food to make, steamed whole blue crabs, which must have trickled down into all family members, because we love to eat crabs to this day.

He is predeceased by both parents, William and Martha Ferguson, Both Aunts Gerry and Mary and a Nephew Antoine. He also leaves to cherish his memories his two daughters, Cassandra Ferguson, Gracie Yvonne Ferguson, a niece who he raised, Carrie Scott and a Nephew he raised and , considered the son he never had, Willie Scott, two sisters, Margie and Barbara, Grand Children, Tyrone Mathis, Tanaya Scott, Diondra Jenkins, Keith Moore, and Serena Shaw. William Scott, Carol Scott, great grand children, Ciera, Ma'Zi

Mauzon and Ezekiel Mauzon, Noel, Niece Bernadette and Nephew Elliot. Cousins Gerald, Jackie, Keniah and a host of other Cousins, Nieces and Nephews, Great Nieces and Great Nephews. He had a very special care giver, who considered him his second dad, Mark whitehead, who will miss him dearly.
