“ To the Valenti family, soo sorry about mom. I know it's hard to lose your mom but be thankful that you have had your mother for so long. She was a great woman and wife (sorry to you too Frank), wish I could give you all hug. Hope everyone is doing okay and know that I've been thinking of your family during this difficult time. Love, Margaret Santoro Claflin.

Rose was the most graceful, kind and loving woman who loved and adored her family. I enjoyed spending time with her back in the 90s with all the members of the Thursday night wine tasting club at Smith's that morphed into bring a dish to pass then being hosted at different homes. I enjoyed going to the Valenti's most even though I had fear she was going to scold me about something or Frank was but I feared her more believe it or not!! But believe me, I DESERVED IT AND WISHES EITHER OF THEM DID!! Neither one judged me and welcomed me with open arms and for the record, I never drank, ha ha!! Still don't! I enjoyed the wisdom and intellect of their generation as I always have had an appreciation for those older than myself.

I am truly sorry for the loss of Rose and all those who are affected by her loss!! Frank, I am thinking of you and please know that I am praying for you!! 66 years of marriage with your best friend and all of a sudden they are gone is difficult. You have seen many disasters and deaths throughout your career but now this is yours, your wife and that is a deep loss.

Losing your mother is such a deep loss because she knew just about everything about you and how to fix so many things in life!! She was a mother but a mother is just so so many things such as a teacher and I mean of every subject, a nurse, family historian- you know...the evidence collector like your first drawing, report cards, school portraits, newspaper clippings, school awards and because she was either the photographer or the one who most likely refreshed the photographs in the home those naked baby pictures were in her possession and only she knew where they were so fetching them at a moments notice to embarrass you in front of you new significant other would always get laughs!! She was the interior designer, supervisor for all the times one of you had to move, local historian, vet, taxi, emergency babysitter, costume designer, chef, bank, automobile loaner, pet sitter, house sitter, neighbor, financial wizard, lawyer, thinker-you know...when you have a problem and she told you, "let me think about it!" She was your best friend!! She was strong, brave, loving, caring, considerate, thoughtful, giving, accepting, forgiving, faithful, honest, loyal, fair and she was beautiful!! She was beautiful inside and that radiated all around her like she had an aura. She had so much dignity and pride and taught each of you well and you have passed that on to your own children!! They will pass it to their children and that is where Rose lives on.

My condolences to each of you and please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers!! May she Rest In Peace. She is with Jesus now and has eternal life. God Bless 🕊 .

We try to be strong in their presence so they don't worry about us but when they pass our emotions shift or maybe we let go of that facade and release our true emotions and fall apart.
