Bonnie & Family, I am so sorry for your loss. It seems there is very little anyone can say to ease the loss of one who you loved dearly meant so much to you. May you find some comfort in the sorrow that you bear, just knowing there are so many hearts that care and understand what you are going through. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this difficult time of sorrow. If you need anything I am here.

“ That picture of Scott is exactly how I will always remember him-- with a smile that lights up his whole face. He always had a way to make a room full of people laugh-and his laugh was so infectious. Everytime you saw him he had new jokes. My time spent with Scott was spent alot at the race track. I loved picking on him about his driving but in all seriousness I would get so nervous when he got behind the wheel. I'll never forget the first time he raced he hit a rough patch in the track and did a cartwheel with his car but in true Scott style landed back on all 4 wheels and kept right on going. I will never forget Scott's smile or his infectious laugh. I have no doubt he is up above racing the eternal race where he is finally in victory lane he always strived for and deserved.
